"Temporary Worker" means the Locum Doctor/Nurse/ODP or other temporary worker who agrees to and is provided with a copy of this contract for services.

1.2 Unless the context otherwise requires, references to the singular include the plural and references to the masculine include the feminine and vice versa.

1.3 The headings contained in these Terms are for convenience only and do not affect their interpretation.

2. THE CONTRACT

2.1 These Terms govern the basis on which the temporary worker supplies their services to the client and they govern all Assignments undertaken by the Temporary Worker. However, no contract shall exist between the Client and the Temporary Worker between Assignments.

2.2 For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms shall not give rise to a contract of employment between the Agent and the Temporary Worker nor between the Temporary Worker and the Client. The Temporary Worker is engaged as a self-employed worker, although the Agent may be required to make statutory deductions from their remuneration in accordance with clause 4.2.

2.3 No variation or alteration of these Terms shall be valid unless approved by a director of the Agent in writing.

3. ASSIGNMENTS

3.1 The Temporary Worker agrees to provide their services to the Client during the Assignment in accordance with this Agreement.

3.2 The Temporary Worker acknowledges that the Assignment has been arranged by the Agent.

3.3 The Temporary Worker acknowledges that the nature of temporary work means that there may be periods when no suitable work is available. The Temporary Worker further agrees that suitability shall be determined solely by the Agent and that the Agent shall incur no liability to the Temporary Worker should it fail to offer opportunities to work.

3.4 For the purpose of calculating the average number of weekly hours worked by the Temporary Worker on an Assignment, the start date for the relevant averaging period under the Working Time Regulations shall be the date on which the Temporary Worker commences the first Assignment.

3.5 The Temporary Worker shall not be obliged to accept any Assignment arranged by the Agent.

3.6 The Temporary Worker may not under any circumstances introduce any other person to supply services in place of the Temporary Worker.

3.7 If during the course of an Assignment or within certain periods after the end of an Assignment or after an introduction where no assignment took place the Client wishes to employ the Temporary Worker direct (or assist another body to employ the Temporary Worker direct), the Temporary Worker acknowledges that under certain circumstances the Agent will be entitled either to charge the Client an introduction fee or a period of extended hire.

- Avoid conduct detrimental to the interests of the Client

5. STATUTORY LEAVE

5.1 For the purposes of calculating entitlement to paid annual leave pursuant to Working Time Regulations 1998, the leave year commences on 1st October annually.

5.2 Under the Working Time Regulations 1998, the Temporary Worker is entitled to 28 days paid leave per leave year. All entitlement to leave must be taken during the course of the leave year in which it accrues and none may be carried forward to the next year.

5.3 Entitlement to payment for leave accrues in proportion to the amount of time worked continuously by the Temporary Worker on Assignment during the leave year and is calculated according to the previous 12 weeks worked.

5.4 In the course of any assignment during the first leave year the Temporary Worker is entitled to request leave at the rate of one-twelfth of their total holiday entitlement in each month of their leave year. Where the Temporary Worker wishes to take any leave to which he is entitled, he should notify the Agent in writing of the dates of their intended absence. The Agent requires four weeks' written notice of intention to take holiday. This is to be sent to the holiday manager in the payroll department in the Northampton Head office.

5.5 None of the provisions of this clause regarding the statutory entitlement to paid leave shall affect the Temporary Worker's status as a self-employed worker.

5.6 Temporary Workers who provide their services via an intermediary organisation or on a self-employed tax basis are not entitled to holiday pay.

5.7 No person shall be able to work for the Client whilst on annual leave.

Failure to submit a time sheet for hours worked may delay payment for those hours. Failure to co-operate in the Employment Business' timesheet process may constitute a breach of this contract for which damages might be claimed.

7.2 For the avoidance of doubt and for the purposes of the Working Time Regulations, the Temporary Worker's working time shall only consist of those periods during which he is carrying out activities or duties for the Client as part of the Assignment. Time spent travelling to the Client's premises, lunch breaks and other rest breaks shall not count as part of the Temporary Worker's working time for these purposes.

In the event that the Temporary Worker is charged with or cautioned in relation to any criminal offence he must inform the Agent immediately and provide regular reports about the progress of proceedings.

9.2 The Temporary Worker will fully co-operate with the Agent in relation to any criminal record checks which the Client is required to carry out.

9.3 Before commencing any assignment the Temporary Worker must inform the Client, via the Agent, about any complaint made against him/her that is relevant to their professional competence, standing or conduct. In the event that the Temporary Worker becomes the subject of a complaint he/she must inform the Client, via the Agent, immediately and provide regular reports about the progress of proceedings.

9.5 Where the Temporary Worker wishes to raise any complaint about any matter, he/she should do so in accordance with the Agent's complaints procedure.

9.6 Unless otherwise agreed the Temporary Worker or the Client may, without prior notice or liability, terminate the Assignment at any time.

9.7 If the Temporary Worker does not inform the Client or the Agent should they be unable to attend work during the course of an Assignment this will be treated as termination of the Assignment by the Temporary Worker unless the Temporary Worker can show that exceptional circumstances prevented informing of the absence.

9.8 If the Temporary Worker is absent during the course of an Assignment and the contract has not been otherwise terminated the Client will be entitled to terminate the contract in accordance with clause 9.6 if the work to which the absent worker was assigned is no longer available.

10. SPECIAL PROVISIONS

10.1 The Temporary Worker must provide the Agent with all requested proof of qualifications, references, recent photographs (for identification purposes), access to health records and medical registrations as may be requested in order for the Agent to satisfy itself that the Temporary Worker is fit to be supplied to Clients. The Temporary Worker accepts that the Agent is or may be required to handle/process this (and other personal information as reasonably requested from time to time) and may need to share such information with its agents or third parties as part of performing its duties. The Temporary Worker recognises such obligations on the Agent and hereby consents to the handling, processing and divulging (whether in the UK, the European Union or elsewhere) of such information as may be necessary for the Agent (or its agents) to perform its duties.
